

Room by Room

Living Room/Family Room

SOLUTION: Just because he wants a big plasma TV, doesn't mean she wants to see it 24/7. Malillard-Smith's #5230-251 bookcase and plasma TV cabinet (above) features a rotating top with four bookshelves on one side and a plasma TV support on the other. The piece's mahogany crotch veneers have an Aged Regency finish. CIRCLE 262

Media Room

SOLUTION: Berkline's #70011 recliner (right) turns any room with a TV into a retreat for video- and audiophiles. The former will appreciate the pop-out cup holder, generously padded back, seat and arms, and PowerRecline™ option. Audiophiles, meanwhile, will enjoy relaxing while listening to their favorite tunes thanks to the Holloway MP3 Dock™ and a built-in FM transmitter that plays music through any FM radio in the home. CIRCLE 279

Living Room

SOLUTION: People who entertain regularly know there's never enough to-beat-up space for hors d'oeuvres, beverages, and guests' plates and glasses. At 78 inches long and 35 inches tall, Eastern Breeze's Scaffold loft console table (above) doubles as a generously sized buffet or bar, when needed. It's shown in a finish called Antiqued Putty Gray. CIRCLE 276

Home Office

SOLUTION: While working at home has become a fact of life for many people, a dedicated office is not an option for some consumers. But that doesn't mean they don't want an organized, at-home workplace. Baronet's La Palma 84 cabinet (right) with drop-front desk offers a leather-covered writing surface, two storage units, a lighting fixture, wire management and a surge protector—all in a solid maple and birch veneer case measuring just 58 inches tall by 20.5 inches deep by 48 inches wide. CIRCLE 277
